

Under The Alaska Human Rights Law and (AS 18.80.220) Title VII of the Federal Civil Rights Act,

SEXUAL HARASSMENT IS ILLEGAL.

If you have experienced:

- Unwelcome Sexual Advances;
- Requests for Sexual Favors;
- Sexual comments or conduct that interferes with your work or creates a hostile work environment; or
- Your employer has made decisions about your job based on whether you accepted or rejected sexual advances, comments, or conduct.

You may be the victim of sexual harassment.

If you believe you may have been sexually harassed, contact the Alaska Human Rights Commission. Statutes of limitation apply.

Retaliation for Complaining about Sexual Harassment is UNLAWFUL.

It is illegal for your employer to fire you or to take other actions against you because you report or oppose sexual harassment.

Notice to Employees

As an employee of this company, you are covered by Unemployment Insurance (UI). The UI program is administered by the Division of Employment and Training Services of the Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development.

The purpose of UI is to provide partial replacement of wages between jobs. If a business has to reduce wages or hours, or temporarily lay off workers, UI gives workers financial security and temporary buying power so they can remain in the community. This, in turn, helps employers keep their trained work force. UI payments protect the economy in Alaska's communities until unemployed workers are reemployed. UI helps to reduce the family and community problems caused by layoffs or a lack of jobs.

You and your employer both pay your UI premiums (taxes). You pay about 2.2 percent and your employer pays 7.2 percent. Generally speaking, if you receive one week of UI benefits, you receive as much or more than you paid into the program for the year. Your employer may withhold from your earnings the employer portion of the UI tax. Wages in excess of the maximum annual taxable wage set for the calendar year are non-taxable. Current and past years' maximum annual taxable wage base and the employer portion of the UI tax rates are posted on the Employment Security Tax website at: labor.alaska.gov/esata/tax/utn.htm.

As with any insurance, you must meet certain qualifications to be eligible for benefits. You must have earned wages in jobs that are covered by the law, file your claim for UI, and register for work with the Alaska Employment Service or your union. You must also be ready, willing and able to accept suitable work. If you quit or are fired from your last job, or if anything is keeping you from accepting full-time work, you may not immediately be eligible for benefits.

To file a NEW claim or REOPEN an existing Alaska claim for UI benefits on the Internet, go to labor.alaska.gov and click on "File Unemployment Claim Online". You will be taken to the file for by telephone and for other UI assistance, contact your local UI claim center. The phone numbers are listed below. If you do not reside in one of the cities below, use the toll free number.

Anchorage: (907) 269-4700 Juneau/outside Alaska: (800) 456-5552
Fairbanks: (907) 451-2557 All other areas in Alaska: (888) 252-2557

The toll-free telephone number to contact to Alaska Relay is (800) 770-8973 or voice (907) 770-8255.

You may be entitled to a refund to excess employee contributions to the UI Trust Fund if you had two or more employers in a calendar year, your withholdings exceeded the maximum annual employee tax and your overpayment is $5 or greater. For the year you are applying for your application (Dec. 31 of the following calendar year), if you had more than the legal maximum employee deduction withheld by any one employer, your employer is responsible for refunding this excess deduction to you.

To obtain an Employee Application for Refund, write the Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development, P.O. Box 115509, Juneau, AK 99811-5509 or email tax at: esd.tax@alaska.gov or the form at: labor.alaska.gov/esata/forms/foia\_forms.htm.

Alaska Unemployment Insurance Program is 100 percent funded by UI. Department labor through a grant award totaling $25,815,406. We are an equal opportunity employer/workforce. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. Alaska employees are required to file a post claim notice. (Rev. 12/24)

Summary of Alaska Wage and Hour Act

Effective January 1, 2025, the Alaska minimum wage shall be $11.91 per hour.

Alaska Statute 23.10.050 - 23.10.150 establishes minimum wage and overtime pay standards for employment subject to its provisions. These standards are generally applicable to all employees. School bus drivers, however, shall receive at least twice the Alaska minimum wage. Other exceptions to the minimum wage requirement follow.

Alaska minimum wage and overtime requirements do not apply to any individual employed as follows:

- in agriculture;
- in the taking of aquatic life; or the hand picking of shrimp;
- in domestic service for services rendered in or about a private home;
- by U.S., state or local governments (i.e., political subdivisions);
- in voluntary service in the nonprofit activities of a religious, charitable, cemetery, educational or other nonprofit organization where the related activity is the organization's nonprofit activities;
- in a bona fide executive, professional or administrative capacity as defined in regulations of the Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development and in the FLSA, or in certain computer occupations, or in an outside salesman, or as any salesman working on a straight commission basis;
- youth under age 18 employed part-time for not more than 30 hours in any week;
- an individual who is employed by a motor vehicle dealer and whose primary duty is to (a) receive, analyze or reference requests for motor vehicles; or (b) arrange financing for the sale of motor vehicles and related products and services that are part of the sale of or in motor sales, lease or repair of motor vehicles;
- an individual who provides emergency medical services only on a voluntary basis; serves with a full-time fire department only on a voluntary basis; or provides all patient services on a voluntary basis;
- a student participating in a University of Alaska program described under AS 14.40.065;
- a person licensed under AS 38.54 and who is employed by a registered guide and master guide licensed under AS 08.54 for the first 60 workdays so employed during a calendar year;
- an independent contractor driver who establishes the driving area and hours, who contracts on a flat rate basis for use of the cab, permit or dispatch services, and who is compensated solely by the customers served;
- solely as a watchman or caretaker on a premises out of operation for longer than four months;
- in delivery of newspapers to the consumer;
- in the search for placer or hard rock minerals;
- an individual engaged in activities for a nonprofit religious, charitable, civic, cemetery, recreational or educational organization where the employee-employer relationship does not, in fact, exist, and where services rendered to the organization under a work activity requirement of AS 47.27 (Alaska temporary assistance program);
- by a nonprofit educational or child care facility to serve the needs of a parent of children in residence if the employment requires residence at the facility and is compensated on a cash basis exclusive of room and board at an annual rate of not less than $10,000 for an unmarried person; or $15,000 for a married person.

Overtime Hours
The standard workweek shall not exceed 40 hours per week or eight hours per day. Should an employer find it necessary to employ an employee in excess of these standards, overtime hours shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay.

Compensation at the overtime rate is not required in the following cases:

- An employee who employs three or fewer people in the regular course of business;
- An individual employed in handling, packing, storing, unloading, carrying, or preparing in their raw or natural state agricultural or horticultural commodities for market, or in making cheese, butter or other dairy products;
- Agricultural employees;
- An employee engaged as a seaman;
- Workers engaged in planting or tending trees, cruising, surveying, bucking or felling timber, preparing or transporting logs or other forestry products to the mill, processing plant, railroad or other transportation terminal; if the total number of such number operations does not exceed 12;
- An individual employee as an outside buyer of poultry, game or milk in their raw or natural state;
- Hospital employees whose duties include the provision of medical services;
- An employee under a flexible work plan which is included as part of a collective bargaining agreement;
- An employee under a voluntary flexible work plan in the employee and employer have agreed in a written agreement which has been approved by the Department. Overtime rates must be paid for work over 40 hours a week and over the hours specified on the flexible work plan not included in a collective bargaining agreement;
- A community health aide employed by a local or regional health organization as those terms are defined in AS 18.28.10;
- Work performed by certain flat-rate mechanics primarily engaged in servicing automobiles, light trucks, and motor homes, subject to certain and specific provisions (see AS 23.10.050(f)(7));
- An employee of a small mining operation where not more than 12 people are employed, as long as the individual is not employed in excess of 12 hours per day or 56 hours per week during a period of not more than 14 workweeks in the aggregate in any calendar year during the mining session;
- An employee employed in connection with publication of a weekly, semiweekly or daily newspaper with a circulation of less than 1000;
- Casual employees as defined by regulations of the Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development;
- A line haul truck driver for a trip exceeding 100 road miles one way if the driver's pay includes overtime pay for work in excess of 40 hours per week or eight hours per day, and the rate of pay is comparable to the minimum wage;
- Work performed by an employee under a voluntary written agreement addressing the trading of work shifts among employees, if employed by an air carrier subject to subchapter 1 of the Railway Labor Act (AS 45.10.181-189), including employment as a customer service representative, subject to certain provisions (see AS 23.10.050(d)(8));
- Work performed by a light crew member employed by an air carrier subject to AS 45.10.181-189 subchapter 1 of the Railway Labor Act;
- A switchboard operator employed in a public telephone exchange that has fewer than 750 stations;
- An employee in attendance exempted employment or a proprietor in a retail or service establishment engaged in handling telegraphic, teleview or radio messages under an agency or contract arrangement with a telegraph or communications company where the telegraph message or communications received by the agency does not exceed $500/month.

NOTE: This is not a complete list of exceptions to minimum wage and overtime provisions. Refer to AS 23.10.055 and AS 23.10.010. The above text is intended for informational purposes only and is not to be construed as having the effect of law.

Posting in a Prominent Place Revised November 2024

Notice to Employers / Employees

Your state has its own minimum wage law which requires posting a notice regarding the aspects of that law. Employees are still required to post the Federal Minimum Wage notice from the U.S. Dept. of Labor and Labor Standards Act in addition to this state posting. According to the Dept. of Labor, where Federal and state law have different minimum wage rates, the higher standard applies.

SAFETY AND HEALTH PROTECTION ON THE JOB

ALASKA LAW AS 18.60.010, to 105 - provides safety and health protection for workers through promotion of safe and healthful working conditions throughout the State. Requirements of the law include the following:

EMPLOYERS:
Each employer shall furnish to each of his employees, employment, and a place of employment free from recognized hazards that are causing or are likely to cause death or serious harm to his employees, and shall comply with occupational safety and health standards issued under the law.

EMPLOYEES:
Each employee shall comply with all occupational safety and health standards, rules, regulations, and orders issued under the law that apply to his own actions and conduct on the job.

INSPECTION:
The law requires that a representative of the employer and a representative authorized by the employees be given an opportunity to accompany the Compliance Officer for the purpose of aiding the inspection. Pursuant to AS 18.60.037, fine open by an employer aiding the inspection shall be considered as time worked, and the employee shall be compensated accordingly.

COMPLIANCE COMPLAINT:
Employees and their representatives have the right to file a complaint in writing with the nearest Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development office requesting an inspection if they believe unsafe or unhealthy conditions exist in their workplace. Their names will be withheld upon request.

DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINT:
Pursuant to AS 18.60.089, an employee may not be discharged or discriminated against because they filed a complaint, instituted, or caused to be instituted a proceeding related to the enforcement of occupational safety and health standards, or has testified or is expected to testify in a proceeding related to occupational safety and health. An employer who believes they have been discriminated against may file a complaint with the nearest OSHA and/or Alaska Occupational Safety and Health office within 30 days of the alleged discrimination.

CITATION:
If upon inspection, the Compliance Officer believes an employer has violated the law, a citation alleging such violation will be issued to the employer. Each citation will specify a time period within which the alleged violation must be corrected.

PROPOSED PENALTY:
The law provides for mandatory penalties against employers of up to $16,131.00 for each serious violation and for optional penalties of up to $16,131.00 for other violations. Penalties of up to $16,131.00 per day may be imposed for failure to correct violations within the proposed time period. Also, any employer who willfully or repeatedly violates the law may be assessed penalties of up to $16,131.00 for each violation. Current penalty provisions may be found here: <https://labor.alaska.gov/osha/osha.htm>.

Voluntary Penalties:
Criminal penalties are also provided for in the law. Any willful violation resulting in death of an employee upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or by both. Conviction of an employer after a first conviction exceeds these maximum penalties.

Voluntary Activity:
While providing penalties for violations, the law also encourages efforts by labor and management, before an inspection, to reduce injuries and illnesses arising out of employment.

OSHA Program:
The Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development encourages employers and employees to reduce workplace hazards voluntarily and to develop and improve safety and health programs in all workplaces and industries.

OSHA Hazard Identification:
Such ongoing active work initially focuses on the identification and elimination of hazards that could cause death, injury, or illness to employees and supervisors. Upon request of an employer, the Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development will furnish a consultant who will inspect the premises and identify hazards without assessing penalties.

More Information:
Additional information and copies of the law, specific safety and health standards, and other regulations may be obtained from the Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development, Division of Labor Standards & Safety, Alaska Occupational Safety and Health at the addresses shown at the bottom of this page.

PROGRAM COMPLAINT:
Under a plan approved July 31, 1973, by the U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the State of Alaska is providing job safety and health protection for workers throughout the State. OSHA will monitor the operation of this plan to assure that continued approval is merited. Any person may make a complaint regarding the State administration of this plan directly to the U.S. Department of Labor, OSHA, Region IX, 30 7th St., Suite 2650, San Francisco, CA 94103, Phone (415) 625-2547.

IT'S YOUR RIGHT TO KNOW About toxic and hazardous substances and physical agents

AS 18.60.068 requires information be displayed in a prominent place on business premises.

- Employers must inform employees about the locations and nature of operations which could result in exposure to toxic or hazardous substances or physical agents.
- Employers must train employees in the health effects of the toxic or hazardous substances and physical agents to which they are exposed and in the purposes, proper use, and limitations of personal protective equipment.

The Alaska Department of Labor and Workforce Development will provide assistance to employers in the form of SDS program development aids, on-site program review, and safety seminars.
